

Center for Community Center Literacy

SpeakOut! literacy volunteers work on a team to facilitate weekly workshops (during semesters) to any of a number of groups of incarcerated adults or at-risk youth in Larimer County. No prior literacy work is required – we have had volunteers from Psychology, Sociology, Criminal Justice and other areas.

Commitment: weekly workshops, collaborative planning, response to writing, availability for orientation and monthly training

Training Dates:

August 30, 4-6pm (orientation) tentative

October 17, 4-5:30pm

November 14, 4-5:30pm

SpeakOut! Journal Launch parties and readings (as applicable for your group)

December 11 (youth) & 13 (jail and community corrections)

Volunteer Information Sheet

Name _____ DOB _____

Address _____ CSU ID# _____

_____ Telephone _____

_____ Email _____

Check Areas of Interest:

SpeakOut! Writing Workshops at juvenile/adult detention centers (circle preferred area)

Grant Writing

I'm interested in becoming a CLC intern (must be junior, senior or grad student at CSU)

List any related experience:

Explain why you are interested in volunteering at the Center for Community Literacy: